

Puāwaitanga o te Puawānanga - Leadership is a key pillar for achieving our dreams

Hōngongoi July 2016

As we work on achieving our dreams for our Hapū in this post-settlement phase we recognise the importance of strong leadership. This photo shows negotiators Bevan Taylor and Tania Hopmans signing our Deed of Settlement in 2013. The other Trustees were Elaine Taylor, Charmaine Butler, Fred Reti, Tom Manaena and (not pictured) Justin Puna, Kerri Nuku and Sabré (Thursday) Puna.

The toki (adze) is a symbol of rangatiratanga (chiefly authority). Toki were used to ceremonially cut a pathway for waka sailing to Aotearoa. We believe a good leader is also progressive - committed to continuous improvement, innovation and discipline. Kaumātua Bevan Taylor was presented with a toki carved by John (Joe) Taylor and blessed by Matiu Eru.

Good leaders focus on the holistic nature and wellbeing of our people. They value the whole person - hinengaro, wairua and tinana (mind, spirit and body). Our wahine are at the forefront of our Whānau wellbeing - our grandmothers, mothers, sisters and wives. The wahine in this photo are leading our Hapū to the signing of the Agreement in Principle at Parliament in 2011.
